Last Chance to Experience PY1, the Innovative, Pyramid-Shaped Entertainment Venue by Lune Rouge Entertainment, Prior to Its Departure from Arlington in Two Weeks

ARLINGTON, TX (February 14, 2020) – After a successful US debut, PY1 will be moving on from Globe Life Park in Arlington at the end of February. Prior to its departure, audiences still have opportunities to visit the innovative, pyramid-shaped entertainment venue to experience the amazing multimedia shows from some of the world's best storytellers. PY1 offers various experiences targeting all publics and ages, including Through the Echoes™, Stella – The Time Machine Journey™, and PY1 Nights.

Stella – The Time Machine Journey™, a participatory show, which made its debut in Arlington, encourages kids and families to move and dance together in the biggest time machine ever built. Using some incredible images and awe-inspiring music from the show Through the Echoes™, Stella promises an unforgettable adventure for the whole family. During PY1's time at Globe Life Park, families have been in awe of the amazing show, which can be seen here.

Through the Echoes™, a one-of-a-kind multimedia show takes visitors on a technological and emotional odyssey through space and time featuring lasers, 360° projections, kinetic stage elements, special effects and grandiose lightscapes. And finally, PY1 Nights, perfect for nightlife-goers and electronic music aficionados, turns the pyramid into a giant dance floor while utilizing wonder-inspiring thematic worlds with well-known local and international DJs. See what people say here.

Following the success of PY1 Nights in Arlington, an extra edition of Eye Wonder will be added to the calendar on Friday, February 21st, with music by DJ Guy Laliberté and Laurence Matte. On Saturday, February 29, PY1 Nights will be featuring a very special theme, "Worlds Collide," a combination of all six worlds for the final show. Guests are encouraged to dress with the theme and mood board from the world that fits them best for this epic evening, featuring music by Justin Martin (What To Do), Moody Jones, and Mobius8, Gabriel Guardian & Delaram Kamareh (Live).

"My experience since entering the DFW market has been one of the biggest surprises of my career," said Sarah Bromley, Artistic Director of PY1 Nights. "The rich talent of the local performers, DJs and supportive promotional community and artists has surpassed my expectations."
